

Baw Baw Shire mayor David Balfour (second left) and shire cultural development officer Karen Whittaker-Taylor (right) receive the Chinese art gift from Wild Dog artists (from left) Leonie Ryan, Laurie Collins and his wife Marian, Kerrie Warren, Jenny Murray-Jones and Eileen Harrison.

Chinese artwork a reminder of tour

The Wild Dog's from Down Under artists have returned from a successful international tour and last week made a special presentation to Baw Baw Shire of a piece of art gifted to the group by a prominent Chinese artist artists were interviewed for television twice.

They signed hundreds of catalogues and the exhibition was visited by many official guests as well as many locals including university students, artists, the young and the old.