

Arts & ENTERTAINMENT

Local artist Kerrie Warren works on one of her artworks for her exhibition entitled 'Through My Rose Colored Windows' that will open in early December.

Kerrie prepares for her solo exhibition

Local artist Kerrie Warren is currently preparing for her first ever solo exhibition entitled 'Through My Rose Colored Windows' to be held at the West Gippsland Arts Centre at the start of December.

The Crossover resident, who received the prestigious best exhibition award at the Rotary Art Show recently, has been expresses her own personal journey exploring landscape. She felt the need to pull and dissect the first known elements such as earth, air, fire and water.

These basic fundamentals have been rearranged and strategically placed individually onto canvas to create a balance and harmony that resonates with Kerrie's inner world.

Kerrie is currently finishing her two